

Additional Objectives – Sacramento workshop

- 32 Perpetuating the waterfowl conservation profession
- 33 Assure landscape and population planning is sufficiently robust to accommodate climatic change
- 34 Inform land use policy that results in healthy landscapes and duck populations
- 35 Conservation of waterfowl landscapes as an integral part of the quality of life in North America
- 36 Garner support from lawmakers for habitat conservation
- 37 Maintain or increase training capacity for new waterfowl professionals
- 38 Reinvigorate a focused education in the principals of waterfowl management
- 39 Use the experience of waterfowling to engage people and instill a passion for the outdoors